"FIRST TO LAST—THE TRUTH: NEWS—EDITORIALS—ADVERTISEMENTS"

VOLUME XXVII.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1917.

NUMBER 11

ALL PASS EXAMINATION

Montgomery county sent her first quota of men to Camp Taylor Saturday morning. The following men comprised the first call: Garrett D. Marshall, Seth Botts, Robert G. Stotter, Hodge Morris, Mitchell S. Sullivan, Joseph Guilfoile, Marion Thompson and Ollie L. Jefferson. Garrett D. Marshall was in charge of the men during the trip. All passed the physical examination and are now full fledged soldiers. We have received a card from the boys as follows: "Send us the paper, old boy. We want some news from home. Tell all the boys to hurry up and come on—this is a great place." The call for the second quota will, it is expected, be issued shortly.

SELL MORE BUICKS

The Mt. Sterling Garage, local agents for the Buick automobile, last week delivered a seven passenger touring car to Mr. John T. Woodford, of the county. This is one of the handsomest cars ever seen in this city, being a 1918 model with all the latest improvements. The company also delivered a five passenger touring car to Mr. Elgin Sharp. The Buick is making rapid progress in this section and is conceded to be one of the best moderate price cars made.

OLD SOLDIER DIES

Mr. Henry Mansfield, aged 76 years, died at the home of his son, Mr. J. T. Mansfield, near Spencer Station, Sunday afternoon of the infirmities incident to old age. Mr. Mansfield was an old Confederate soldier and was well known throughout the entire county. He is survived by his son and two daughters, who have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon with burial in Peeled Oak cemetery.

THOMSON HOME SOLD

Mrs. Jennie D. Thomson last week sold her handsome residence on West Main street to Mr. Joshua Owings, Sr. Price private but said to have been in the neighborhood of $7,500.00. Possession will be given in the next thirty days. The home is one of the most desirable in the city. Mr. Owings and his daughters, Miss Hattie and Mrs. J. L. White, will live with their father.

WILL GO TO CALIFORNIA

Mr. Joe Hill Scott, wife and son, Jack, will leave shortly for California to spend the winter and may decide to locate there, as Mrs. Scott has relatives living in the golden state. Their many friends here would regret to see them leave our city.

WILL HAVE OPEN SESSION

Country Woman's Club Will Hold Interesting Session Wednesday, September 19th.

The Country Woman's Club will have its opening session on Wednesday, September 19th, and is anxious to have present on that day at least one hundred women. Any woman interested in Home Economics, Home Gardening, Food Conservation, etc., is invited to join. There will be no fees charged, nor duties assigned for the full year, as we have decided, in this, our national crisis, to eliminate literary work, and to make a study of the things which will benefit IMMEDIATELY, our own Nation, and our Allies. We shall always meet on the third Wednesday in each month for an all-day meeting, serving a light lunch at noon. The hours will be from 10:30 until 2:30 so that those desiring to shop, and get home before night may be able to do so. After our business and social hour, we will have present some expert worker along different lines, who will either lecture or demonstrate their work to us. We have found that most of our women in the country especially, feel they haven't time for study, and instead of coming prepared with a duty, prefer to go home better prepared for their home duties. The social hour alone is worth while. You will learn to love people whom you have never spoken to before. That has been the experience of most of our old members and we are now looking forward to the old fashioned spend day. When reading this, don't feel it is meant for some one else, but for YOU especially. No lines are drawn. Our number is unlimited, and our desires and hopes, great, for a most helpful year. Our Nation is calling for our help and there is no way to help so efficiently as by organization. If we win this war, our women must be as well prepared and as good soldiers in the home as our men are on the battlefield. Mrs. Helen B. Wolcott, State Home Demonstration Agent of our own State University, will be present on September 19th and give us a most helpful address. We should appreciate Mrs. Wolcott's coming to us, as her duties are so important and urgent, she is seldom permitted to leave the University. Shall we expect you? Call or address Mrs. Bassett at Rest Room, if you can come in the morning, and that is when we want you. However, if you can't know so soon, your plans, come right along anyway.

DIES AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Nannie Kash, of Hazel Green, but who made her home with her uncle, Mr. J. G. Trimble, in this city, up until about a year ago, died at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lexington Saturday morning at 12:20 o'clock after a long illness of stomach trouble. Mrs. Kash was about 65 years of age and was a most excellent Christian woman. During her stay in this city she made many friends who will regret to learn of her death. Funeral services were conducted at her late home with burial in the cemetery at Hazel Green Sunday afternoon.

MT. STERLING THEATRE PATRONS LUCKY

Messrs. Judy and Gay advise us that they have been very fortunate in securing for their patrons as the opening play of the season, an original Broadway production with the original New York cast. The play is "Believe Me, Xantippe" and boasts as its star Richard Buhler, the original Ben Hur. This show plays Macauley's Theatre in Louisville all this week and comes as strongly recommended as any show that ever played any city. This attraction will be at The Tabb Theatre one night only, Wednesday, Sept. 19th. See ad. elsewhere in this issue for particulars.

Y. M. C. A. WEEK HERE

Mr. O. M. Adams, field worker for the Kentucky Y. M. C. A., was here last week and made arrangements for a special Y. M. C. A. week in this city, beginning Sunday, October 14th, with special services in all the churches and finishing out the week canvassing for members, etc. The campaign is being conducted throughout the State to further the work of the organization among the Kentucky soldiers at the cantonment camps.

We Are Now Ready.

Everything new, chic and up-to-the-minute in the millinery line can be seen at our store now. We will have no formal opening this season but the public is cordially invited to inspect our line.

CHARGED WITH DESERTION

John Berryman, charged with desertion from the Second Regiment, was arrested here yesterday by Chief of Police Tipton and returned to the authorities at Lexington. Berryman joined the army from this county several weeks ago and he is quoted as saying he grew tired of the life and decided to come back home. He will be tried by special court-martial. It is understood that there are twenty cases to be tried. Soldiers found guilty of desertion by court-martial are subject to capital punishment. The maximum penalty is death, but it is thought that in the cases of the run-aways from Camp Stanley they will not be as strenuously dealt with as if the regiments were in actual war service. The leave-takings by the men from the ranks, the officers say, are mainly from failures of the men to realize the seriousness of the war mobilization and the rigidity of the law.

MT. STERLING HORSES

E. R. Little was at Portland, Ind., last week with his horses. While he won no first monies he did very well. Brook Chenault won second in $300 purse. Karl and Jean Wotan each won second money in $300 purses. Bessie G. won third in $1,000 purse at Indianapolis. Stanbon also secured third and Double G. got fourth money. Chas. Bean started at Indianapolis and won fourth money. Mable T. was fifth in her race. Bernice and Mable T. are both at State Fair, Louisville, this week, and hope to win with both mares. F. P. Bean is also there with his 2-year-old filly and will start her in the 2-year-old stake. Jas. R. Magowan also has his stable there. Mr. Magowan won second money at Indianapolis last week with Annie Donaldson (2). She started against 3-year-olds.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Losing control of her automobile while passing a drove of cattle on the Maysville pike, Mrs. Lawrence Fassett, daughters, Misses Mayme and Nell and Miss Louise Smathers had a narrow escape from death late Thursday afternoon. The machine ran into a tree and turned partly over throwing the occupants out and badly damaging the car. Mrs. Fassett received a severe gash in the neck from the broken windshield while the girls were considerably cut and bruised, but fortunately none of them were seriously injured and their escape is considered miraculous.

Mrs. K. O. Clarke desires to announce that she is ready this week, commencing Wednesday, Sept. 12, to show a grand line of Pattern hats. Ladies invited.

COUNTY BOARD WINS LAWSUIT

In Court of Appeals Growing Out of Controversy at Camargo School.

The controversy over the employment of teachers at the Consolidated School at Camargo has been settled by the Court of Appeals in favor of the County Board of Education. The local school trustee, Mr. Ray Moss contended that he had the right to recommend the teachers to be employed, while the County Board of Education, insisted it had the right to employ them, since a high school was also being taught in the same building. A suit was instituted by Mr. Moss and several taxpayers against the members of the County Board of Education and County Judge W. O. Chenault decided in favor of Mr. Moss and his co-plaintiffs. This decision was reversed by Circuit Judge William A. Young and the Court of Appeals Monday refused to sustain a motion made by the plaintiffs to re-instate the injunction dissolved by Judge Young. The effect of the ruling is to sustain Judge Young. The case in the Court of Appeals was heard by Judges Carroll, Settle and Thomas.

CAPT. KINSOLVING HERE

Capt. H. Benton Kinsolving, of Louisville, is in the city the guest of relatives for a few days. Capt. Kinsolving is Captain of Co. H., First Kentucky. Being an old Mt. Sterling boy and one of the finest young men ever reared here, he is being made welcome by a host of friends.
